Dear Parents and Carers,

This is our second curriculum overview of the year and its purpose is to let you know what the children will be learning in the weeks leading up to the season of Christmas. As usual we will also share those key words your children will be learning as well as suggestions for the different ways you can support learning at home.

Our approach is always to be encouraging and reassuring, in order to affirm our children and help each of them to feel confident. We do this because confidence builds resilience, and resilience is a trait of all happy and successful learners. We therefore encourage children to see learning as fun even if it is challenging sometimes. So children making mistakes and developing knowledge and understanding through productive struggle are both perfectly normal parts of the learning process. We remind them constantly that we are all here to help and support them, so they can be open about any struggles and worries that they have.

With this in mind, if your children struggle with any homework tasks, simply offer them reassurance and encouragement, and when they have done all they can manage on their own, tell them that it is ok to stop.

We never want to cause our children unnecessary stress nor do we want anyone else to do their homework for them. That is pointless and will mask an issue delay some children getting the help they need. If your child has struggled with a task, for whatever reason, please let us know (via a note/email) and tell us what they could do and what they struggled with, so that we can follow it up. Colleagues will always be understanding and supportive, and work hard to ensure that our children feel reassured and happy.

We know that ways of teaching and learning change over time so we are always happy to explain them to parents/carers either on a one-to-one basis or in workshops so that parents/carers feel more confident helping their children at home. If you would like help and advice on a one-to-one basis please email or arrange a telephone meeting.

Yours sincerely,

Headteacher

TERM 2 LEARNING VALUE: HONESTY

Our Learning Value is 'Honesty'. Honesty is when a person does not do things that are judged to be morally wrong. Honesty is about speaking and acting truthfully and with integrity. Those who break rules/laws or who choose to hide their true intentions and actions (because they know they are wrong) are being dishonest.

Honesty is speaking the truth, it is not:

- saying what is definitely untrue
- saying what might be untrue
- making things up in order to hide the truth

Honesty is what you say and how you act toward others. It is also about being honest to yourself. Being honest with yourself means knowing and understanding why you act in certain ways. It is about speaking the truth to yourself and acting in ways that mean you are being true to yourself, your values and all the things that you believe.

HOMWORK

Homework is given out on Friday and it is expected back by the following Thursday. It will consist of:

- a mix of 'MyMaths' online homework (www.mymaths.co.uk) and other Mathematics homework
- 'Bug Club' for reading homework
- spellings for a weekly spelling quiz each Friday (please work hard on these to meet new standards)
