Remembrance 2022

Today we came together as a community of school and parish, in a simple act of worship and remembrance, to mark Armistice Day, as we do every year. Throughout the week - and in age-appropriate ways - the children in every class have been learning about the origins of Remembrance Sunday and have explored the significance of the poppy as a national symbol of remembrance. It is important that in their time with us, the children develop, gently, an appreciation of why this moment is important in the life of our country, so that they understand. As part of our work and prayers, we have also reflected on our shared hope for peace in the UK and throughout the world.

Our service was led by the young people of Y6, who shared words, poems and prayers. Over the week, all the children made their own poppies which were added to simple wreaths. In one special moment, during the service, representatives of each class processed slowly from the back of the church to lay their wreaths at the foot of a simple wooden cross on the Sanctuary, just before 'The Last Post', was played.

We thank Fr Bede, for allowing us to use the church, as well as the family, friends, parishioners and members of our local community who were able to join us. Due to circumstances beyond our control, no poppies were delivered for us to sell in support of the great work of the Royal British Legion. We will therefore do something, at a future point, to raise money, which we will then donate to the Royal British Legion. You can view the service online by clicking here.

Blessing of the Library

On Tuesday 29th November 2022 we will welcome Bishop Ralph in to bless our new Marie Kerley Library. He will be joined by Fr Bede and representatives of our PTFA, the parish and Gripple, who helped us so much.

Our Feature Books of the Week!

Our 2022-2023 SJF book list can be accessed via this link. Our latest feature books are:

Alone by Barry Falls (click here)

Children of the Quicksands by Efu Traore (click here)

Alone: The Waterstones Review

With its easily flowing rhyming text and colourful illustrations, Falls' enchanting tale of a boy who wants to be on his own - and the creatures that seemed determined to get in the way - is a delightful picture book all about the joys of making friends. The book was shortlisted for 'The Waterstones Children's Book Prize for Illustrated Books' 2022. Please click here.

There once was a boy called Billy McGill who lived by himself at the top of a hill. He spent every day in his house all alone for Billy McGill liked to be on his own. But life doesn't always turn out how you plan it...

One day Billy hears the squeak of a mouse - destroying his perfectly peaceful existence. So he gets a cat to catch the mouse. But the cat and the mouse make friends. So he gets a dog to chase the cat. But they all play together too. So then he gets a bear... then a tiger... and on it goes, until Billy's house is so filled with characters that he has to move out. Will he find that he still craves peace and quiet, or is it actually quite lovely to have company and friends? The brilliant second book from Barry Falls is a laugh-out-loud tale of growing chaos, with a lovely message about how it's good to have friends.

Children of the Quicksands: The Waterstones Review

In a remote Nigerian village, twelve-year-old Simi is desperate to uncover a family secret. City girl Simi is sent to stay with her long-lost grandmother in a remote Nigerian village. There's no TV, internet or phone. Not a single human-made sound can be heard at night, just the noise of birds and animals rustling in the dark forest outside. Her witchlike grandmother dispenses advice and herbal medicine to the village, but she's tight lipped about their family history. Something must have happened, but what?

Determined to find out, Simi disobeys her grandmother and goes exploring. Caught in the sinking red quicksand of a forbidden lake, her fantastical journey begins...

A richly imagined magical fantasy adventure set in West Africa by a prize-winning new voice in children's writing. Introduces readers to Yoruba myths and legends whilst showcasing the wealth of culture, traditions, adventure, fun, joy, celebrations, music, pride and love found in Nigeria. Beautifully explores themes of grief and belonging.

Statement to Live By

Our statement next week is 'I try to stand up for myself and others without hurting others.'

Time to talk: Each of us is important, and during 'Be Safe - Be Happy Week' we reflected on just how special we are. Everyone deserves to be treated with respect. We know that everyone must be accepted for being just how God made us and that we all have the right to feel happy, safe and loved, every day. If someone or something gets in the way of us feeling happy, safe or loved then we know that we can speak up. The children are taught to 'Tell! Tell! Tell!' and also speak up for others they think or know are feeling unhappy, unsafe or unloved. This is done without hurting or putting anyone at risk.

To stand up for yourself takes strength, but to stand up for others takes courage.
- Alice Ann Jennet Lisenby
